

Youth Venture of Central Iowa Presents: KWAKers

KWAKers:

"Kids With a Kause," so these youth living in the Waveland Neighborhood call themselves. And their "Kause" has become very well-known: "Let's do something. Let's make it positive. Let's make it fun." By organizing events that unite the neighborhood, the KWAKers are focusing attention towards causes. And with as many as 50 youth at times, the KWAKers car wash and pool parties during the summer of 2010 are sure to be a good time. They are continuing to grow and work collectively and positively in Des Moines.

